

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 2008

Contact: Carrie Camero
Phone: 713.461.0028
carriec@cancares.org

Young Friends of CanCare Hosting Spring Crawfish Boil

Houston, TX... Young Friends of CanCare is hosting the 4th Annual Crawfish Boil at Blanco's Bar and Grill on April 19, 2008. The party begins at 2 p.m. and is open to the public. Join us for crawfish, drinks and the festive sounds of the live band, Small Sounds. There will be raffle items throughout the day and a live auction later in the evening.

Tickets are $20 per person in advance and $25 at the door. All proceeds benefit CanCare, Inc., a Houston-based nonprofit organization providing one-on-one emotional support and Hope to newly diagnosed cancer patients and their family members from trained CanCare volunteers who are cancer survivors and caregivers of survivors.

Young Friends of CanCare, one of the four auxiliary boards of CanCare, Inc., hosts quarterly networking mixers and an annual Crawfish Boil to raise funds and promote CanCare's message and free services to the young professional community. Young Friends is open to anyone with an interest in sharing CanCare's message of Hope with their circle of influence, or who is looking for a way to help serve within the organization.

For more information about the Crawfish Boil or for any additional information about CanCare's free services, please call the office at 713-461-0028 visit www.cancares.org.

About CanCare, Inc.

CanCare is a nonprofit organization that provides emotional support to cancer patients and their family members from someone who has survived the same type of cancer they are facing. CanCare has over 500 volunteers representing more than 50 different types of cancer, dedicated to the mission of improving the quality of life for cancer patients and their families by offering Hope and understanding. CanCare was founded in the faith community in 1990, and now partners with more than 100 congregations, corporations and hospitals in the Houston area. All CanCare services are confidential and free of charge.